Rhyme of the Week

My Butterfly

You crawled out from a tiny egg
With a great big appetite.

You ate and ate so many leaves
Until you could not bite.

You hung down from a little branch
And formed a chrysalis to grow.

You evolved into a butterfly.
I hate to let you go!

By Rebecca DiLeo

Reading

Please make sure you read with your child every day and sign the reading record book. Books should be brought to school every day. They will be changed every Monday and Thursday, but this will only happen if we can see that the books have been read.

Remember to log into Bug Club!

Focus for this half term:

Literacy

This week the children sequenced the story.

Next week the children will be writing lists.

Homework - Ordering pictures and writing matching sentences.

Phonics

This half term we will be working on Level 4, where the children will consolidate and practise the letter sounds they have already learned, focusing on blending and segmenting longer words with adjacent consonants and some two-syllable words.

Maths

This week we focused on taking away.

Next week we will focus on composing shapes.

Homework - Using objects and number lines to take away.

Remember to log into Doodle!

Discovery Homework - Recording what has changed as you have grown.

WORD OF THE WEEK:
TREMENDOUS

Question of the week:

What can you do now that you couldn't do as a baby?

Forest School -Please ensure your child has a pair of wellies that fit, in school.

Sun hats and sun cream -As the weather gets warmer, please put sun cream on your child and send them to school with a sun hat (with their name).

Thank you,
The Reception Team
