English

This week: We sequenced the story using drama and started to retell the story of King Midas.

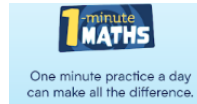

Next Week: We will be continuing with retelling the story. We will also be innovating the story, by changing the magic touch.

Mathematics

This week: We looked at time, looking at quarter past and quarter to. We went onto minutes past and minutes to the hour.

Next Week: We will be starting tally charts, pictographs and block diagrams.

Online Learning: Please use White Rose 1 minute maths to reinforce fractions and time.

Please download the app. An easy-to-use app - and completely FREE! Parents and Carers: download and watch your child have fun while they continue learning maths at home!
