A great BIG thank you for your kind donations today as we celebrate Pyjamarama Day.

English

In English this week the children continue to rehearse the events of the story from the perspective of the lion in preparation for their independent diary writing activity. Next week they will be writing the final part of their diary entry and will be completing their final SAT's papers end of KS1 formal assessment for English. Please note that this is not the final grade given and all levels will be judged by their overall work throughout the year up until the end of July.

Home learning: Focus on past reading papers and finding the answers in the text.

Maths

This week the children have been learning turns and movement with a key focus on directional vocabulary. They also continue to revise a past SAT's papers in preparation for the end of year national assessment. Next week in maths children will be learning about measure and with a focus on length.

Home - learning practise: Continue to practice pasts reasoning and arithmetic SAT's papers in preparation for their tests in the coming weeks.

Science- Living things

RE - The key beliefs of Islam.

History - The Great Fire of London

P.E - Net games

Question of the week

What do you think a plant needs to grow well and why?
