London RISE Open Education Fortnight

We are pleased to confirm that Yeading Infant and Nursery School have been successful in meeting the criteria to be part of London RISE Open Education Fortnight 2026.

We will be one of approximately one hundred London schools opening their doors to other education professionals to share strong practice around one or more of the four national educational priorities:

● Attendance

● Inclusion

● Reception Year Quality

● Attainment

We are delighted to invite you to participate in the inaugural London Rise Open Education Fortnight (9th March - 18th March 2026). The London RISE Open Education Fortnight aims to be a collaborative pan-London initiative showcasing and sharing exemplary educational practices that are making a positive impact on children's learning and development across all age phases. Yeading Infants is privileged to be part of this London wide programme of school visits focused on the four national education priorities, thus extending teachers' and educational leaders' professional growth and learning. Starting Strong- a Holistic Approach to Early Education at Yeading Infants

Tuesday 10th March 2026 9.00am- 11.00am

We would like to invite you to Explore research and principles behind holistic early education, examine key elements that contribute to a strong foundation and reflect on the current practice at Yeading Infants that contributes to a strong foundation.

Through collaborative discussion, case studies and practical planning, participants will identify actionable ways to enhance early learning experience, strengthen transitions and build partnerships. School leaders in attendance will walk away with a clear vision and a set of practical tools to implement holistic, developmentally informed practices that promote wellbeing, engagement and long-term success for every learner.
